

Autumn 2024: What are we learning?

Art

- Cultural themes - Mexican Day of the Dead
- Paper collage techniques and observational drawings of skulls
- Pop Art and Fast- Food culture
- Photography, painting and drawing of Fast Food in a Pop Art style
- Responding to artists and a theme in an oral, written and visual way

Computer Science

Flowcharts and Python programming

- To develop problem solving skills by developing flowchart algorithms to control real world systems.

Databases

- Build an understanding of how data is stored in computer systems and use SQL to query databases.

Drama

Exploring Performance and Structure

- To build understanding of rehearsal techniques.
- To develop characterisation through physical and vocal skills.
- To explore narrative structure in devised performances.

English

Poetry

- To foster a love and enjoyment of poetry
- To recognise how peoples' use of language/structure reflects their identity
- To develop confidence in the creative construction of a poetic form

Personal Development

Careers: Explore/Citizenship

- Beginning My Career Journey
- My Career Personality
- Entrepreneurs
- Resilience
- Talk Smart Communication

Design Technology

I be on a series of rotations in the following order, each lasting 7 weeks or 14 lessons. Throughout the year they will cover:

Engineering - Biomimicry Casting

Graphics - Pop ups

Product Design - Sports CAM toys

Textiles – Supermarket Shop

Food – Food from around the World

Modern Languages

French- to describe where they live and answering key questions with more extended answers

German- to have and to be, personality, description and favourite things

For yourself & for others

Autumn 2024: What are we learning?

Geography

In Geography our students will be studying why the earth is naturally hot and cold but also how climate change caused by humans is likely to affect different people in different countries in different ways.

History

What were the experiences of Africans in Tudor England?
In what ways was Britain 'turned upside down' in the 1600s?

Maths

Graphs and Charts
Measures
Indices
Algebraic Fractions

Music

Rhythms and texture in Samba Music.
The context and history of Samba Music.
Developing respect through ensemble performing

Physical Education

Football
Badminton
Netball
Badminton

Science

Sound and Light
Periodic Table and Elements
Breathing and Digestion