

Sixth Form Dress Code

The majority of students prefer to have a dress code in the Sixth Form, as this saves competitive dressing and the daily anxiety over what to wear. We expect you to dress as if you are working in a business/office environment, thus low cut tops, shorts, flip flops etc are not acceptable.

Issues with the dress code will be dealt with by Form Tutors in the first instance. Students may be asked to return home to change into appropriate clothing.

Footwear

Black or brown footwear only - Plimsolls, trainers, military style boots and canvas shoes are not acceptable. Footwear should be suitable for an office environment.

Trousers

Plain black trousers – this does not include black denim or denim effect fabric. Trousers should be full length, plain cut, of a traditional style and with no studs or buttons. Skinny jeans, jean style chinos, black jeans, leggings or jeggings are not permitted.

Skirts

Black, grey or burgundy and of a sensible length (mid-thigh or lower)

No denim material is permitted.

Fabric jersey / stretch / bodycon skirts are also not permitted as we believe that these are not appropriate business attire

Dresses

Dresses can be worn but need to be black, grey or burgundy and of a sensible length (mid-thigh or lower)

No denim material is permitted.

Fabric jersey / stretch / bodycon dresses are also not permitted as we believe that these are not appropriate business attire

Tops

Plain polo neck or crew neck T shirts in black, grey or burgundy can be worn.

Plain black, grey or burgundy blouses can be worn.

Plain black, grey or burgundy sweaters, sweatshirts or cardigans may be worn. (No hoodies)

No thin-strapped / vest style tops (shoulders must be covered). No exposed mid-riffs. No large logos on any item of clothing.

Outdoor Jackets

Outdoor jackets must be in keeping with professional office dress (denim is unacceptable). No hoodies, zipped or otherwise, at any time.

Tattoos

No visible tattoos are permitted.

Hair Colour

Hair should be a natural colour even if dyed, ie. no pink, blue, green colour is acceptable. Hair should be styled in keeping with 'professional office' dress.

Jewellery

Jewellery should be minimal. Only small studs or small rings are allowed.
